NEW ORLEANS CHAPTER

Raising the Bar to New Heights

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Civil Rights Act and the Criminal Justice Act

In 1964, Congress passed several landmark laws that changed America forever. The Civil Rights Act and Criminal Justice Act have been termed by some as two of the most important laws of the century. Fifty years later, these laws are still relevant and having an impact on individuals and our country. The New Orleans Chapter of the Federal Bar Association is pleased to present a panel discussion reviewing the historic context of the law, where we are today, and the future of the Civil Rights Act and Criminal Justice Act.

June 5, 2014; 9:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.
